Associated Press Telegram

HAVAS' AGENCY

Paris, 18th (Evening),

Telegrams from St. Petersburg announce a Proclamation by the Emperor Alexander III. which mainly consists of a resolution to carry out a peaceful policy abroad and a frank and decidedly progressive one at home.

THE ITALIAN EXHIBITION

The Italian exhibition which will be inaugurated to day in this city is another proof of the enterprise of the foreigners in the Plate, and loses nothing of its industrial significance from the present troubled state of Europe or the terrible character of the Havas telegrams.

Without Government subsidy or protection of any kind, the Italians have organized this exhibition which after all, possesses a higher importance for both the Italian and Argentine than the mere character or quality of the articles exhibited. It is not many years ago since there was scarcely a word hard enough for the poor Italians arriving on these shores, who embraced the very humblest walks in life to gain a honest living, and how far, by their industry sobriety and enterprise, they have outlived that Porteño prejudice may be judged by their splendid institutions, which grace this city at every point.

The Italians, by their exhibition to-day, show their countrymen at home that round the world there is no soil more genial to the countrymen of Petrarch than the Plate, and President Roca is in his place in standing patron of a feast which claims all our best sympathies and happy hopes.

Our colleague the Operario Italiano gives the following respecting this feast of Industry and flow of Art—

"The locale presents a varied and attractive sight: Here are festoons of flowers, here the coats of arms of Italian cities, there more flowers, then the escutcheons of the Argentine provinces, and then a splendid picture, glowing with colour, representing the Apotheosis of Work, and showing that the artist has hit the Italian workman's sympathetic chord.

"Yesterday the finishing touch was given to the painting and internal arrangements of the building, and the clock was placed over the grand entrance. Mr Eugenio Riva placed a fire engine at the orders of the Committee, in case of accidents, and Mr Rivolta has sent a fireladder on the Milan model.

"The other night, Sig. Chiarini, indefatigable Inspector of the Exhibition, together with all the peones, passed the whole of it hard at work getting the exhibits, which had literally poured in on the closing days, into order, and the night before last they had similar labour. But everything is now in its place.

"Outside, men are working night and day to complete the paving of the street in front of the Palace. Inside the passages are lined on each side with little 'ghiaias' from Montevideo, and the effect is most beautiful, giving greater prominence to the different exhibits. Sig. Dordoni has contributed some beautiful palms and ornamental plants.

"Yesterday Dr del Viso, Minister of the Interior, and Dr Victorica, Chief of the Agricultural Department, paid a private visit to the Palace. Messrs Chiarini and Maraini received them and showed them round the Exhibition, and our reporter, a good and brawny workman, acted as 'cicerone.' Dr del Viso at once made for the machinery department and expressed himself as delighted with it. In the furniture section a beautiful billiard table and a library fairly surprised him. Sig. Poggi then sat down at his organ, and the distinguished visitor could hardly believe that an Argentine had made the instrument. In the Fine Arts Hall a portrait of Gen. Roca seemed to please the Minister greatly, as also an oil painting representing a market for female slaves, and another showing a workman lecturing his son for not studying his lessons. The drawings of the pupils of the 'Unione y Benevolenza' School elicited the warmest praise from H.E., and equal praise was accorded to a picture sent by the Girls' School of the Unione Operai.

"The hall in which general industrial exhibits are ranged caused Dr. Del Viso more surprise than ever, the variety of skins claiming his first attention. The Azul marbles, artificial stones, busts and the great clock were the last things that fell under Dr del Viso's eye, and he admired them greatly. Before leaving, the Minister congratulated Signor Maraini warmly on the simplicity and perfect taste of the building, the latter remarking that it would have been larger but for the scarcity of funds. His Excellency said on leaving: 'I congratulate the Italian residents and the promoters of the Exhibition, which shows what a high degree of progress they have attained.'

The Niger's Mails.

STATE OF IRELAND.

A supposed attempt to blow up Beggar's Bush barracks is reported from Dublin. On Tuesday night Captain S Stephens, on driving past the barracks, states that he saw a man stooping over something alight beside the wall. The man ran off, and was not pursued for any distance. On the light being put out, two dynamite detonators were found, but no dynamite. The strange occurrence was promptly reported to the military authorities and the police. Although it at first excited some alarm in Dublin, the whole affair was on Wednesday pronounced a 'scare.'

James Curtin, residing near Kildysart, was fired at three times whilst standing in his haggart on Sunday night. The man states that he cannot identify his assailants, but expresses his belief that the outrage was instigated by his refusal to join the Land League.

A hotel, kept by Mr T Donovan, near Clonakilty, was entered on Sunday while the family were at chapel, and all the furniture broken. A revolver only was taken away. A dog which was tied up in the yard was stabbed in several places.

On Monday morning, at an early hour, a party of men with blackened faces entered the house of two ladies, named Savage, near Castle island. They said they were Land Leaguers and wanted arms. Having got a gun, they broke open a box containing £70, some silver and heavy deposit receipts. No arrests have yet been made.

A serious disturbance took place on Monday night at Clonmel, between a body of civilians and some soldiers of the 18th Royal Irish Regiment. One of these latter, an Englishman, shouted 'Down with Parnell and the Land League,' and was struck by some bystanders. Some comrades came to his rescue, and a free fight ensued. The police drew their bayonets, and the soldiers, taking off their belts, fought their way to barracks. Some time after a fresh disturbance broke out, when Corporal Simpson was severely beaten. Three men have been arrested and remanded, bail being refused.

Mr Thomas Stratford Denis, a gentleman farmer and Land Leaguer, was returned for trial at Waterford, on Tuesday, on a charge of having cruelly illtreated one of his tenants by removing his bed of straw and pulling out the window-sashes and door-panels, and thereby exposing the man and his wife.

THE BOER WAR.

Amsterdam, Feb. 15th.—The Amsterdam Transvaal committee met to-day to discuss the reply of the general committee of the Red Cross society, in which the latter declared that they could not accept money destined for one of the two belligerents exclusively. In consequence of this intimation the Amsterdam committee have resolved, in concert with the General Transvaal committee to employ the funds already collected in succouring the sick and wounded in the Transvaal. It was also decided at to day's meeting to forward an address to the King of the Netherlands, praying his Majesty to offer his mediation to the British Government for the purpose of putting an end to the war in a manner honourable to both parties. Finally, the committee arranged to convene a meeting, the date to be fixed subsequently, in Amsterdam, and to invite the committees in other towns, as well as persons acquainted with the state of affairs in the Transvaal, to attend.

Durban, Feb. 15th,—The Boers have brought the war fully within the Natal territory. Horses and cattle have been swept off close to Newcastle. A transport waggon was plundered and a hospital dresser on his way to Newcastle with wounded was stopped by some drunken Boers, who took his horse, broke the General's flag, and drove off the ambulance mules. This is the history of that affair. No Boers are seen from the road, but large patrols are seen by the scouts. At seven last night all was quiet at the camp, which is within heliographic reach of the Biggarsberg. The 15th Hussars and Mounted Police are laagered at the top there. By this time the 62nd Highlanders, the 60th Rifles, and the Naval Brigade must be there. A battle is fully expected at this point, as the ground is broken and suited to Boer methods of warfare. Sir Evelyn Wood left Maritzburg for the front in a special cart on Sunday night at 11. He has been enthusiastically received, and it is hoped that he will lead forward the reinforcements. After 36 hours' rain round Newcastle, the weather is now fine. Messages between the General and the enemy have been passed under a flag of truce. The news of further reinforcements has been received with satisfaction. The effects of the Boer action on the native mind causes much anxiety. At Potchefstroom the storekeepers have been ordered to get up supplies from the coast for delivery to the War council at fixed prices, under pain of a fine and penalty. The Bloemfontein Express says that the Boers are fighting to wipe out the foul slanders of their so-called brother colonists.

MARRIAGE OF BARONESS BURDETT-COUTTS.

The Baroness Burdett-Coutts and Mr. W. L. Ashmead-Bartlett were married on Saturday morning at Christ church, Down-street, Piccadilly by the Rev. William Cardall, assisted by the Rev. Henry White, chaplain of the Savoy. None but the nearest relations and most intimate friends of the Baroness and Mr. Ashmead-Bartlett were present, but these included Sir Francis and Lady Burdett, Sir Harry and Lady Keppel, Lady Sarah Lindsay, Admiral and Mrs. Gordon, Mr. Ashmead-Bartlett, M. P., and Mr. Bryant. Mr. Bartlett was accompanied by Mr. Lacaita as his best man. Sir Francis Burdett, the nearest male relation of the Baroness, and head of the family, gave his cousin away. Mrs. Trevanion, Lady Burdett Coutts's eldest sister, who was unable, owing to delicate health, to be present at the marriage, afterwards entertained the wedding party at her residence in Chester-square.

Mr. Bartlett had previously to the marriage assumed the name of "Burdett-Coutts" before his own surname, in accordance with the will of the Duchess of St. Albans.

The Baroness Burdett-Coutts, with her husband, Mr. Ashmead-Bartlett, after the wedding breakfast, proceeded to Charing cross station. Soon after half-past three a considerable crowd congregated within the station but they were shut off from the departure platform by barriers. The platform in front of the train was covered with crimson cloth, and Sir E. Watkin, M. P., the chairman of the company, the Rev. Henry White, of the Savoy chapel, and Colonel Surtees were on the platform. The bridal party arrived at the station at 3.40 in a carriage and pair, the servants wearing wedding favours. The Baroness was the first to alight and she cordially shook hands with Sir Edward Watkin and the other gentlemen in attendance. Sir Edward attended her to the saloon, and stood for some minutes in conversation with her ladyship. The special train, consisting of a Royal saloon with a firstclass composite carriage and two break vans, left the station punctually at 3.55, and was timed to reach Headcorn, near Ashford, in Kent, at 5.15. From there the party were to proceed to the residence of Admiral Gordon, in Kent.

March 17th.

Allow me to present the compliments of the day to the sons of St. Patrick residing in the Argentine Republic. Their sons will help to form the perfected Argentine of the future, but I trust they will never forget the Saint and the legends of the beautiful land of their fathers. The province of Buenos Aires is peculiarly indebted to the Irish. In no part of the world, in the United States, in the English Colonies, is there to be found a group of any nationality more respectable, industrious and successful than the Irish population in Buenos Aires. As Admiral Brown was the maker of the Argentine navy, so his countrymen have created the 'camps of Buenos Aires,' a term synonymous with the backbone, marrow and wealth of the Argentine Republic, and while doing so they have exhibited some of the best qualities of the human race. They are upright, intelligent and law-abiding, and noted for the union and affection existing in the family circles. I think I can say all this on St. Patrick's Day and not trespass on bad grace. I hope that a railway of sympathies will be laid across the Atlantic, from the River Plate to the Green Island, and that we may soon see it crowded with Irishmen, women and children, on their way to settle on those 'camps' that their countrymen have made a glorious bye-word.

I have been told that the Editors of the Standard are Irishmen. If this be so, I will beg them to understand that my remarks are directed more to the camp than to the city, and if there is anything of eulogy in what I intend to be only strict truth, the said Editors are only to take their legitimate share.

Do you know, Mr. Standard, I am inclined to believe, after much cogitation, that the Argentine Republic has not produced a very superior crop of Political Economists. Here we are, a little handfull of a couple of millions, spread over a region as large as Russia, with all the natural elements of internal wealth—virgin lands, forests and minerals; and instead of developing these natural riches, we are continually incited to compete with the Old World in manufactures. By the bye, I see there are proposals out for forming a great company for the manufacture of native blacking in Mendoza. I have never yet known an Argentine competitive manufactory of European goods, but, what has come to grief. The favourite maxim of the great Duc de Sully: 'Le labourage et le paturage sont les mammelles de l'Etat,' applies perfectly to this country. The real, permanent and grand sources of wealth of the Argentine Republic are our illimitable pastnre lands and our agricultural regions, and we can throw in our minerals as a 'llapa.' Hides, beef, wheat, maize, sugar, tobacco and wine form the grand Argentine capital. Let us develop this, and leave the ill-paid artizans of the Old World to supply us with their handi work, which it is simply ostentation to try and compete with.

In re the 'One-eyed Deer.' There you are again. You are altogether too confiding, my dear Standard. You must suffer from your amiable weakness one of these days. You have allowed some unscrupulous miscreant to throw a shadow of doubt on the purity of the Bastilian of your well-beloved Rosario Correspondent? How could you commit such a critical outrage? Point me out the man who misled you so cruelly. I will borrow some of the language of Mr. Potts, of the Eatenswill Gazette, to annihilate him utterly, Look up the 'Diccionario de la Sociedad de Literaturo' and you will find—'Tuerto, falta de un ojo; que tiene un ojo de menos, sea porque haya nacido asi, tea perdido mediante cualquier accidente.' It is true that colloquially the word is sometimes and erroneously applied to a squinting person, and particularly as an affectionate diminutive 'tuertito.' But a squint has its proper definition and word, 'bisco.' If that 'Deer' squinted he would have been a 'lusus naturæ,' for I believe it is only the human animal which possesses the privilege of squinting. I do not think Mr. White would recognise the possibility of the existence of a squinting deer.

You stick to the 'One-eyed Deer,' and do not let evil-minded individuals warp your better judgment. Do you not remember the Spanish proverb—'En el pais de los ciegos el tuerto es Rey?' There is proof positive for you, Pooh, pooh! my dear Sir, your correspondent, like Mr. Puff, is above criticism.

Our communications with Buenos Aires are enriched with the advent of that 'chicha' of a river steamer, the Tridente, which I suppose we ought to translate into 'The Sceptre of Neptune,' as in point of beauty and fitting up this vessel surpasses anything ever seen on the River Parana, and certainly rules the waves in that respect. She makes five trips a week to and from Campana, and our old friend the Proveedor three, to and from San Fernando, so that in point of travelling facilities between the two principal parts of the Republic we have nothing to complain of. A more thorough inspection of the new vessel of the Lloyd Argentino will enable me to describe her at greater length. I now only speak of the extreme beauty of her fittings and decorations.

The auction of the town lots of the Armstrong estate closes to-day. The auction of the 'One-eyed Deer land beats them to fits.

The other day the large iron tank of the Central Argentine was cleansed, and found to contain any quantity of fine 'pejereys,' which had been sucked up at a period of innocent infancy, and had grown to a good size in the tank. All the families at the station observed Lent that day.

W. P.

P.S. Allow me to felicitate you on your admirably-written editorial on 'The Czar Murdered,' in your Tuesday's number.

MONTETIDEO.

The many robberies and murders in the camp have at last attracted the notice of the Government, and Minister Rivas has issued notes to each Jefe Politico, which show the metal of the man; there is no sugar and tea in the expression of the note, on the coutrary, the language could not be stronger. The note terminates expressing a wish to remove the idea prevalent in the country, that only dictatorial governments can insure security of life and property.

The political meeting of the constitucionalistas in the Plaza Constitucion is naturally proclaimed by its adherents a great success; and they may be proud of their efforts; there is nothing more difficult than to establish a new party. The plaza was crowded—that means to say—that there were perhaps 1,500 respectable people there. Mr Aramburu's list of electoral candidates met with general approval; the speeches were many. Amongst those who spoke were the brothers Ramirez, Blanco, Aramburu, De Maria, and many others. All throug the greatest order prevailed and anybody might see that the new party represented the respectable portion of Montevideo.

The 13th March was duly celebrated as the anniversary of the present ricketty Government, when Latorre, Cato-like in severity, declared that he abandoned the reins of Government because his countrymen were not fit to be ruled by him. There has been something very nebular about the Latorre resignation, and one may safely say that had he remained in office six months, nay, six weeks' longer, the Czar's fate would have been also his. However, the ex-Dictator is far away but not far enough to quiet the periodical fears of the Montevidean patriots.

People, perhaps, have not remarked that on a 13th March Latorre resigned, the Czar was blown up, and on a 15th March Julius Cæsar fell at the foot of Pompey's statue under the assassin's dagger, whilst on the 17th is St. Patrick's anniversary. Gustave II. was also murdered on a 15th March. The only folks who rejoiced over the 13th March anniversary were the Govervent people, who indulged in a magnificent luncheon at the expense of the Treasury.

A terrible murder is reported in one of the camp districts. The victims were a married couple. The man had 15 bullet and knife wounds, whilst the woman was shot through the head. This is truly a lamentable state of affairs, and no wonder the new Prime Minister has addressed a rather stiff note to the various Jefes Politicos, who should be made responsible for the security of life and property in their respective jurisdictions. Such murders as these are a blot on the authorities. All know that the Latorre regime, with all its faults, suited the interests of the camp, as crime was reduced to a minimum. This murder occurred in the Cerro Largo, and the last advices report gangs of 'matreros' galloping about, clearing out with cattle and horses. A paper states that individual security in that department is a myth, and no wonder, when such dastardly outrages are recorded daily.

The death of Mr Vaillant leaves a great void. Thanks to his enterprise the statistical department of the Banda Oriental ranks foremost in this continent. Besides deceased founded, 18 years ago, the Siglo, which is the best paper in the River Plate to-day. Mr Vaillant was for forty years a resident of this country.

Deputy Bustamante has presented a bill to abolish bull-fighting, a most laudable idea, no doubt. The amusement is not of the choicest, but if the honorable representatives wish to weed out abuses, let them first begin with the primordial reforms, viz, security of life and property, reduction of taxes, prohibition to preach sedition, prohibition to carry fire arms, in fact weed out murderers, robbers and swindlers, 'et hoc genus onme'. Once we get these desiderata, than let the honorable gentlemen control the amusements of the people, abolish bullrings, where tastes are depraved, skating rinks, where you break your legs, gambling-dens, where you are robbed right and left, in fact all appendages which prevent the Montevideans from being a pious, good and moral population. When we are all hypocrites, it will be time to exclaim 'Risum teneatis.'

EDITOR'S TABLE.

True to the hour was our weather Zadkiel when he predicted, last Monday, when there was not a cloud in the sky, 'that the rain was coming up and would fall early on Saturday morning.' The sprinkle on Friday was merely an advanced scout of Jupiter Pluvius, but, yesterday morning just before daybreak, down came the buckets in glorious style, flooding the streets and suburban roads, to the intense delight of everybody. The deluge saved the editorial potatoes on the Flores Road, which were all but gone from the drought. Every one looked in the highest spirits yesterday, in renewed health in fact; and the perfumes of Araby the Blest could not excel the aroma let loose from all the quintas by the beneficent rain. We have definitely broken off friendly relations with our barometer, which is stuck at the same point it was a week ago. We'll sell it by auction 'ad corpus,' with a guarantee that its match is not to be found between the Equator and the South Pole.

The Havas telegram announcing the frustrated attempt to blowup the time-honoured Guildhall has produced an unpleasant impression. Many people think that it has nothing to say to the Irish Question, but is the work of the foreign Internationalists with London whom swarms, and meant to keep alive the fear and excitement which the successful assassination of the Czar naturally caused all over Europe. Even enlightened foreigners have often an idea that, after the Queen, the Lord Mayor of London is the greatest personage in England, and the Socialists think, probably, that by blowing him over the moon, they would deal the aristocracy of Europe a fatal blow. We pity his Lordship. Civic greatness has its drawbacks.

Dr Emilio Alvear entertained a select party at dinner on Wednesday evening at his quinta at the Cinco Esquinas. Amongst those present were President Roca and Mrs Roca, The Minister of War and Mrs Victorica, the Minister of Foreign Affairs and Mrs Irigoyen, the President of the Provincial Bank, Mr and Mrs Obligado, Mr and Mrs Saguier, Mr and Mrs Kier etc.

We had the pleasure of inspecting yesterday the superb album which the employees of the Telegrafo del Estado have presented to their late companion in arms (or rather in wires) Mr Warner, who is now an estanciero near Venado Tuerto, and has one of the finest places in the country. This beautiful album, which was bought at Mr Sommer's, (the famous hatter) is a veritable work of art, the binding in gold and mosaic being of the most gorgeous kind, and the leaves are adorned with exquisite wreath frames for the photographs, which include those of the donors. On the fly leaf is an inscription stating that it is presented as a mark of esteem to Du Rudolfo A. Warner, by his friends in the Telegrafo del Estado. We have rarely seen a more beautiful present, and Mr Warner may well feel proud of it.

The Wochenblatt has some very pertinent remarks on German emigration to the Plate, showing the nonsense of some newspapers which entirely miss the mark by colouring too much the advantages of the country. Our colleague very well says there is no better land than this for the industrious emigrant, but the latter must not be drawn here under false pretences: thus for example the boast that the Government possesses thousands upon thousands of leagues of land for colonization is ephemeral: a colony in the Chaco or Rio Negro would be a problematical result even if carried out at great expense: the lands for emigrants lie in the provinces of S. Fe and Entre Rios. As the population increases with the railways, and people gradually populate the present deserts, a colony might be started in the present desert territories, but not before. We beg also to thank Mr Aleman for his interesting work 'Bilder aus der Argentinischen Republic,' a book that has attracted much notice in Germany.

A peculiarity of the rain yesterday was that it hardly rained a drop at Merlo. When the daily-bread men there started for town they were enveloped in dust, but found it raining like blue thunder at Moron, to their intense astonishment. The conjunction of the planets has utterly demoralized the Clerk of the Weather: that's flat.

The Italian Exhibition opens today and will draw crowds. We hear it is a veritable 'bijou,' and will tell our readers all about it on Tuesday morning.

Hermann, the Sultan of Wizards, and Miss Cervantes, the Queen of harpists, join to-night to give a Concert at Belgrano, in aid of a new charitable Society which is being founded by the ladies of that town. It is safe to predict that old Belgrano will have a crowd of visitors this evening.

Dr Colbourne was summoned yesterday by telegram to attend a wealthy estanciero in the Western partidos; he leaves this morning by the first train from Parque station.

The mails by the French mail steamer Niger were delivered yesterday. The Greeks seem determined to go to war, Bismarck says that if war break out, it will be the fault of France and the course adopted by her Foreign Minister, M. de St. Hilaire. The Germans in New York held a meeting of sympathy with the Boers. There is little fresh from Ireland. The Baroness Burdett Coutts is married at last.

The yellow fever cases on board the American barque Alhambra at Montevideo knock all idea of abolishing quarantine on the head for the present. The captain and one sailor have died, and the Montevidean authorities are taking the most stringent precautionary measures.

The drought is very bad in Banda Oriental, and the cattle are dying in all directions.

The Club Industrial will hold a General Meeting to-morrow night at which most important matters will be discussed, and the members are requested to attend punctually.

According to notice a meeting will take place in the Scotch School on Thursday evening next, on which occasion it is to be hoped that Mr. Powell's Scotch friends and former pupils will muster strongly, as much interesting information will be given respecting the school, which for the last 25 years has been under his direction.

The heat is playing mischief with the French opera company, although it is the best ever seen here. The house is half empty every night

Patacons	29.05
Cedulas A	93½
National Bank Shares	79

Although this was Saturday and the vencimientos reached 373,500 pats; there was far less of a push in the gold market to-day than yesterday. The bulls still seem to hold the market on time, whilst they have given it up for cash, and what has rarely occurred in this market for some time back gold was cheaper cash than for end of the month. The pressure on the gold market now seems to come from the houses, many of whom, reading the future at the light of an improvement that each day is becoming more obvious, consider that at the end of this year there will be an end to 'curso forsoso'. The cidevant Bolsa King publicly stated in the hall to-day that on January 2nd, 1882, the patacon would be again at $25 and convertible over the way, and although of course this is merely the opinion of a gold broker and an admitted speculator, still it is always useful for merchants and others to know the views of some of these people.

Gold opened at 29.10 cash and closed at 29.05. Cash sales 129,455 pats, but for the end of the month there is a tremendous push by the bulls; prices opened at 29.10, then dropped to 29, and closed at 29.10. Again for April prices advanced 10 cents opening at 28.80 and closing at 28.90, and for May and June at 28.80.

Cedulas, spite of the hub-bub about the projected loan to the Municipality, rule rather firm, opening at 93½ and closing at 93½. We give at foot a letter received on the Cedulas subject, which although opposed to our views on the matter, may interest the market.

National Bank Shares—Nothing sold cash or for end of month. Two lots for April at 79. Buyers for 31st March 78½, which is higher than 79 for April. The fortnightly balance-sheet of the bank was out to-day and will be found at foot. We note the bank holds—

Gold	1,564,758
Fuertes	631,520
	$f.2,196,278
Emission	1,426,026
Surplus over emission	$f.760,252

The Bank also holds—

National Bonds	1,206,332
Treasury Notes	1,000,000

We give these figures to show the splendid position of this bank, and they say on 'Change that at any moment we may have the bank entering the Exchange market and drawing on London and Paris, as it appears credits have been duly arranged there on a satisfactory basis.

The rain this morning before daybreak was, after all, the very best of all news for the market. The gloomy prognostications of the gold bulls yesterday were washed away before they were out of their beds this morning. There is no concealing the touch or go state of affairs in the camp. Mr Thos Duggan, who arrived last night, was welcomed on 'Change, and he stated that the north camps were in a terrible state for the want of rain, but we believe the rain this morning was general throughout the camp and has saved everything.

The death of Sr Oyuela, one of our most respectable money brokers, threw a gloom over the tables, the funeral took place this afternoon; deceased was a man esteemed by all, ripe in years, and one of the best informed men on 'Change.

There was nothing fresh to-day about the loan; it seems Mr Cortinez is still occupied, making his calculations as to the advantages of the various bids. As it was generally said that the Société Generale of Paris will probably get the business, the following particulars respecting this Bank taken from the Green book, may interest the market—

Societe Generale head office Paris

Subscribed capital, frcs. 120,000,000
Paid up do do 60,000,000

The Niger's mails were delivered to-day and the letters are said to be very important; we for our part received three letters from London asking for very detailed information on certain matters concerning the country, and we note that almost every English and French mail brings us correspondence of the same character. Some very influential London houses are beginning to take great interest in River Plate affairs, and we believe it is not imprudent for us to say that a Joint Stock River Plate Land Co., capital 2 millions sterling, is about being formed in the London market.

"Exports of the week—
Flax—650,400 kilos to Europe.

"Wheat—The expected yield has been greatly exaggerated, and the arrivals are very scanty. The difference in prices this time last year is remarkable; in March, 1880, the Costa wheats fetched from $220 to 240 whilst to-day they are quoted at $190 to 216 per fanega. The market is firm. Costa wheat fetches $216 and Rosario wheat $200. The stock of wheat is very scarce. Flour continues in demand, but prices remain unchanged. Maize is rising; in fact good qualities are in demand."

We have received the following for publication in this column:—

To the Editor of the Standard,

Sir,

Should the Municipality procure Cedulas from the Hipotecario Bank on their properties it would be a good operation, for the following reasons:—1st. It would allow the Municipality to pay off their most pressing claims, and as the creditors would receive them willingly at par no loss could accrue to Municipality. 2nd The Municipality would then be able to arrange their presupuesto and see just what they can count on for serving any loan, which at present they can not do. 3rd. When the Municipality are fully aware of what their income will be under the new order of things, their outgoes from all sources, then a loan could be issued and retire all outstandings, including the Cedulas. Thus there would be only one Municipal Bond, which would readily command a good price. 4th. Eight per cent on Cedulas with such a low amortization would be a benefit to the Municipality, allowing them time to arrange their finances without any sacrifice. Eight per cent can not be called an exorbitant interest. — For these reasons I would suggest that all possible should be obtained from the Bank, and as the creditors will receive them at par the arranging is easy. Nor can there be any harm for the Bank; they receive their interest and make a commission on the business. This is the Bank's business. I do not see that the Bank is called upon to sustain the price of Cedulas; their object is to benefit the country and to make money. No will cat loan should be made, but any good interest paying property should be received and every effort made to gain money in a legitimate manner. Cedulas will then take care of themselves, and those who buy Cedulas for rental will not care about any temporary decline. And as nearly two millions have been retired, amortized and deposited I think a large sum could be placed on the market with out affecting the value of the security to any great extent, and the depression, should it occur, could only be temporary. The Cedulas taken by the Municipality will be given around and not sold on the market, hence no forcing of sales could occur; this general distribution would help the Bank and could not injure its credit. It is an anomaly to see a rich city Government with large values in property, asking money as though it were alms; let the Bank help temporarily, and when the budget of the city is arranged we will see the credit of this city as high as any other perhaps in the world.

650 cabezas mestizas Durham, verdaderas Short-horn, que se pusieron en rodeo en un solo potrero, alambrado desde el año 1862, teniendo por origen el troso mas escojido de la hacienda que vendio en esa epoca la afamada estancia del Sr Alfaro (de Canuelas) y nunca han sido servidas sino por toros puros de lo mejor, importados uno y otros de la renombrada cabaña de los "Tapiales," por cuya razon tiene este ganado la misma pureza de sangre, ofreciendo la ventaja que la paricion de los ultimos anos esta toda orejana.

TREN ESPRESO IDA Y VUELTA

Que tendra lugar los dias 25, 26 y 27 de Marzo.

Habiendo vendido el magnifico y valioso establecimiento conocido por Blandengues, al Sr D Benito Lando y no habiendo entrado en esa venta los ganados finos de todas las especies, el propietario nos ha autorizado para proceder a su realizacion en remate publico, en lotes pequeños al gusto de los compradores.

Como las haciendas de que se trata son casi en su mayor parte finas y cuya venta demandara mas tiempo necesitandose como es consiguiento mas de un dia de remate, y en el deseo de que los señores que quieran asistir a el, puedan hacerlo con toda comodidad, hemos creido conveniente fijar la gran feria para tres dias, y en oportunidad anunciaremos el dia y hora de la salida del tren espreso.

El establecimiento Blandengues es celebre por sus crias finas y aunque nunca ha presentado sus productos en los remates que se dan en la ciudad.

Todos los criadores de la Republica saben que alli no se han encomizado dinero, ni se han ahorrado gastos para estar a la vanguardia de los primeros establecimientos del pais, y asi es que desde muchos años atras se han introducido alli los mejores animales que se necesitaban para el refinamiento de las razas tanto lanar como caballar, yeguarizo y vacuno de todo lo cual hay animales especiales, ya sean puros como mestizos.

Las especies que existen en 'Blandengues' se componen de majadas, tipos de cabaña en ovejas y padres puros Rambouillet de la Cabaña Imperial, hoy Nacional de Francia, majadas Lincoln servidas por carneros puros importados directamente de Europe, majadas finas Rambouillet, yeguas puras Normandas, yeguas pura sangre de carrera importadas de Inglaterra. En esta raza (la yeguariza) hay animales notables y de gran merito, de distintas razas, servidas por magnificos padrillos puros introducidos directamente de Europa y lo mejor que ha venido al pais.

En el ganado vacuno mestizo hay animales de mucho merito, y en cuanto a lo puro, hay vacas, vaquillonas y toros de la raza Durham que estamos seguros no dejaran nada que desear. Al anticipar este aviso a los senores hacendados tanto de esta Republica como de la Oriental e Imperio del Brazil, lo hacemos con el objeto de que se vengan preparando para este remate que podemos reputar como el mas importante que se ha dado hasta hoy entre nosotros de ganados finos de todas las especies.

Hoy que esta demostrado de una manera evidente que la riqueza de nuestra tierra consiste en la ganaderia, y que cuanto mas nos dediquemos a su refinamiento, tanto mas aumenta la riqueza publica y privada por el valor que toman las especies y los campos, nos parece oportuno llamar la atencion de los Sres. Hacendados, para que con tiempo se preparen a adquirir animales finos de toda especie nacidos en el pais e importados directamente, ya aclimatados y que no se ofrecen todos los dias en venta.

ALMANACH DE GOTHA

Very interesting reading indeed an appreciative student can find between the two scarlet covers of Herr Justus Perthes's Almanach de Gotha for 1881, the hundred and eighteenth year of its publication. For all that may be said 'among our fierce democracy,' the fact remains that personal gossip and statistics concerning those who in the nature of things are removed from the sphere of daily and commonplace life are always acceptable—often fascinating. And a very pleasant companion Herr Justus Perthes is for a jaunt among the imperial, royal, princely and noble families of Europe, though we have sometimes to complain that, in his easily-to-be-accounted for discretion, he omits to mention enjoyable facts which do not exactly consist with the dignity of his distinguished subjects. For instance, we are not told on page 15 that the Empress of Austria's brother, Prince Charles Theodore of Bavaria, is a diplomated doctor, and a very good one, too; nor, on page 36, that the Landgravine Marie Alexandina Augustine Louisa Eugenie Matilda, Duchess of Wurtemberg, Royal Highness and widow of the landladies or milliners. Under the head 'Russia' there is no meution of the beautiful Princess Dolgorouki, and from the list of the male members of the house of Reuss—all of whom are Henries and are numbered in the order of their birth, a new series beginning with a new century—we at last miss the name of Prince Henry XX, who married a circus-rider, Mlle. Clotilde Loisset, and was compelled to sacrifice his princely rank, become plain Baron von Reichenfels and emigrate to Bulgaria to become aide to his old comrade Prince Alexander I. Under the title 'Wurtemberg,' too, we miss the name of the Princess Pauline, a self-willed woman of 26, who on May Day last year renounced her title and position, became plain Fraulein von Kirbach and married Dr Willim of Breslau, a young physician who passed his examination on the eve of his marriage, and apparently obtained a good wife, since when the Court Preacher at the altar dwelt with disparaging flattery on her sacrifice, the ex-Princess interrupted him with the remark that she was only too glad to give up all to obtain the man she loved. The Princess is distantly related to the Princess Victoria, the future Empress of Germany. More be token, this latter Princess's aunt (sister-in-law to the Princes Helena of England), married another physician, Dr. Esmarch, of Kiél while this last lady's uncle married as his second wife, in 1864—Mis Lee, of New York. The roll of the House of Hatzfeldt, too, is not illumined by the name of the young Prince who married another circus rider, Mlle. Emilie Loisset; still another equestrienne's name is lacking from the "Gotha"—the Ex-Princess of Salm-Salm. Whether circus riders or gardeners' daughters rank lowest in the opinion of the editor cannot be said, but he certainly scorns to mention the union of the head of the house of Erbach-Erbach with Frædlein Luck, though he records the morganatic marriages of his two sons. This family traces its descent from Charlemagne's daughter Emma or Imma, and his secretary and biographer, Eginhard, whom, as readers of Longfellow remember, the Princess carried from her bower pick-a-back lest the print of his footsteps on the snow should betray their loves. The value of this story is impaired by the fact that Charlemagne had no daughter Emma, so far as is known; that his daughters generally were "a bad lot," that Eginhard says none of them ever married, and that the episode of the snow-storm had been told of Henry the Black more than two centuries before it was told of Eginhard.

How much of pathos and tragedy some of these closely-printed pages contain! One name alone appears in the first section under the title 'Maison Bonaparte—Ligne Imperiale de France,' that of the ex-Empress Eugenie, widowed, childless and motherless, though twice that family has occupied the proudest position in the book established before Napoleon Bonaparte was born. The ex-Empress has played a more heroic part than did the wife of Napoleon I. Metternich has told us how Maria Louisa, when the conqueror asked her in marriage, desired her father to dispose of her without any regard to her personal preferences but solely with an eye to the interests of the empire. He has also told us that Napoleon was a remarkably good husband to her, forbearing to vex her as he had incessantly vexed Josephine. But Sismondi has preserved the letter which the Empress wrote in the midst of the agony of the Hundred Days, hoping fervently that Count Neipperg had not broken his poor dear leg; this same Count Neipperg she subsequently married, and their son is alive, the head of the inconspicuous house of Montenuovo. The second section of the Bonaparte notice is devoted to the Jeromist branch—'Plon-Plon's' wife, by the way, was the 'Iphigenia of Italy,' even as Maria Louisa was the Iphigenia of Austria—but in law, religion and justice it should contain the names of the descendants of Betsey Patterson. Just across the page comes the family of Bourbon. What thrones remain to them after more than two centuries of planning, plotting, conquering and marrying? Denmark and Saxe-Cobourg-Gotha unquestionably hold the first place in Europe at the present through their alliances. Christian IX. twenty years ago was leading the life of a retired country gentleman in Denmark, with a comparatively limited income: one of his daughters will be Queen of England, another Empress of Russia and a third would be Queen of Hanover but for Bismarck, while a fourth child has ascended the throne of Greece. One prince of the house of Saxe-Cobourg married the Queen of England and another the Queen of Portugal; a prince of that house sits on the throne of Belgium; his sister was for a brief and perilous period Empress of Mexico; and so on down a long list.

A glance at the table of ages and reigns will rather surprise the average reader, whose preconceived ideas on the subject of history are generally of the haziest and most inaccurate sort. No one will be astonished to learn that the evergreen Emperor of Germany, now nearly eighty-four years old, is the eldest of living sovereigns, the next in point of seniority being the Duke of Brunswick, born April 25, 1806: Leo XIII., born March 2, 1810; the King of the Netherlands, born February 19, 1817, and Prince Adolphe, of Schaumburg-Lippe, born on the first of August in the same year. The King of Denmark is sixth on the list; the Czar seventh, Queen Victoria, eleventh; Dom Pedro of Brazil, sixteenth, and the Emperor of Austria twenty-fourth, the two sovereigns under thirty being Prince Milan, of Serbia, born August 10, 1854, and King Alfonso XII. of Spain, born November 28, 1857, who in his short life has assisted at two revolutions, has been married twice and shot at twice. But the positions are materially changed when we come to regard the length of each ruler's reign. Dom Pedro, of Brazil, heads the list, having ascended the throne April 7, 1831, at the age of six: the Duke of Brunswick (April 20, 1831) comes next: Queen Victoria is third June 20, 1837; Francis Joseph of Austria is sixth—December 2, 1848; the King of the Netherlands seventh March 17, 1849; the Czar is twelfth and the Emperor William (as King of Prussia) only nineteenth. King George of the Hellenes ascended the throne more than five months before his father assumed the royal dignity. The junior sovereign is Charles, Prince of Schwarzburg-Sondershousen, who, though a man of fifty, only began to reign on the 17th of July last.

Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S

(Ex Army Medical Staff)

CHLORODYNE

IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

—o—

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's.—See Times, July 12th 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for coughs, consumption, bronchitis, asthma.

CHLORODYNE effectually checks and arrests those too often fatal diseases—Diptheria, Fever, Croup, Ague.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitations and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis &c.

Extracts from Medical Opinions.

The Right Hon. Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians and J. T. Davenport, that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy or any service in Cholera was Chlorodyne. See Lancet, Dec. 31st, 1864.

From A. Montgomery, Esq. late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay. 'Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy in Neuralgia, Asthma, and Dysentery. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health, after eighteen months' severe suffering, and when other remedies had failed.

Dr. Lowe, Medical Missionary in India, reports (December 1865) that in nearly every case of Cholera in which Dr. J. Collin Browne's Chlorodyne was administered, the patient recovered.

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera. 'So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy, that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases.

See leading article, Pharmaceutical Journal, August 1st, 1860, which states that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the inventor of Chlorodyne, that it is always right to use his preparation when Chlorodyne is ordered.

CAUTION. None genuine without the words 'Dr. J. Collis Browne' on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.
